The Intelligencer.
The Intelligencer entered on the 23d year of its existence yesterday, having printed its first number August 24, 1852. Times change and men change with them, and so likewise do newspapers, which are the creatures of time and change. This paper came into being as a pro-slavery Whig organ in the heat of the Presidential canvass of 1852, and just in time to be in at the death of the Whig party, which took place in the November following. The Wheeling Times, also a Whig paper, was suspected of heterodox notions in regard to slavery, and the old regime hereabouts wanted a Virginia Whig organ. So they started the Intelligencer. Like Balaam they opened up their mouths to curse Israel, but behold the result. In four years thereafter the paper passed into Republican hands and there it has remained ever since. The old regime builded wiser than they knew. The last gun cast in the State to play upon the Black Republicans was one of the best destined to fall into their hands. For eighteen years out of the twenty-three of its existence it has played away upon the principles of the men who founded it. It is thus, in the language of Rousseau, that in this eventful world "the unforseen governs."

As a matter of local interest hereabouts we note the nomination of JOSEPH W. PARKER, Esq., formerly of this city, by the Democrats of Millin county, Pa., for the lower house of the Pennsylvania Legislature. Mr. PARKER served one session in the Legislature of West Virginia, and while a member of that body, as indeed during his whole stay among us, enjoyed the respect of both political parties. He came to Wheeling from Pennsylvania, and his friends hereabouts will be gratified to see that a prophet hath honor in his own country sometimes.

THERE was a three hundred thousand dollar fire at South Bend, Indiana, yesterday, in which four of the Wheeling Insurance Companies participated as losers. The Franklin, Peabody, Fire and Marine and German had each a risk of $2,500.

THE Chicago Tribune, in alluding to the strange story from Wetzel county recently published in our columns, says that "the most annoying case of spiritualism comes from that unspiritual State, West Virginia."

Mrs. REBECCA HARDING DAVIS is in North Carolina, where she is gathering materials, it is said, for a new novel.

MOULTON'S Disclosures to Townsend.
GEORGE ALFRED TOWNSEND has had another interview with Mr. MOULTON, in the course of which the latter said, among other things, that "Mr. BEECHER has been for years one of the most licentious men in the country; licentious up to his full opportunity." The following is an extract from this second interview as given by TOWNSEND in a dispatch to the Chicago Tribune of Friday:

I asked Mr. Moulton if the amour with Mrs. Tilton had not been of some use to Mr. Beecher spiritually. He said, "Yes, it made him desperate, and in a measure reformed his life, which had been very bad for several years. The mental struggle he had gone through has made him a more profound and humble man." I asked, "Did you, Mr. Moulton, ever suspect that he would play false in this matter?" "Yes," said Moulton, "I thought so from the time that he slipped up into Mrs. Tilton's bedroom and."

OBTAINED THAT RESTRAINT;
but I went into this fight in good earnest, resolved to take both men and women. I have had many an intimate talk with Mr. Beecher on his scandalous behavior, and it has often appeared to me that he had no moral sense whatever. I have heard him make remarks on outrages committed within the family circle which showed that he had no conception of the common principles of life." Said I, "Mr. Moulton, has Mr. Tilton treated you as a lewd man?" "Upon my word of honor," he said, "he has never made a filthy allusion or repeated a low anecdote in the quarter of a century that I have known him. My life has been in the daytime that of a business man, and my recreation after business hours of the dilettante. Mr. Tilton has always been my conception of a thoughtful, ideal, literary man."

"Did you ever think, Mr. Moulton," said I, "that Mr. Beecher was too indolent and constant in Mr. Tilton's family?" Said Moulton, "No; I never deemed that there was any error until I saw Tilton going around the last man, and he never said a word to me on this case until nearly six months after he had been tortured with the secret." Said I, "Mr. Moulton, are there any persons, yourself included, who have heard Mr. Beecher confess his adultery with Mrs. Tilton?"

He replied, "It has been the subject of conversation and confidence between Mr. Beecher and myself for nearly three years; probably about a dozen persons know about it. After I make my documentary statement I shall take up Mr. Beecher's documentary statement as one man answers another, and refute it."

Our Sistersville Correspondence

Our Rising Letter Writer on his Winding Way—He is Much Taken With a Host Kept by Two Ladies—His Appearance on Horseback.

SISTERSVILLE, W. VA., Aug. 23, '74.
Editors of the Intelligencer:

I arrived here on Thursday evening on the Courier from New Martinsville. As usual the Courier was crowded with passengers, and much more freight was offered at the various landings than could be taken at the present stage of the water. The Courier is a great favorite with the traveling and shipping public.

Arriving here we made quick time to the Western Hotel, kept by L. Schaal. But Mr. Schaal is a cripple, and the entire management of the house falls upon Miss Joe and Lou Schaal, two fine ladies as one often meets them. They know how to keep a hotel. However, we do not propose to lavish praise upon them. We do not believe altogether in so doing. We have known since our boyhood of such things being done to the writer's discomfort and aggravation. We know such would not be the result in this instance, but we have the opinion of one better versed than we are, and we will give his opinion. We refer to MARY NOEL, CLERK OF THE COURTS.

We once heard a gentleman inquire of him for a good hotel along the river, and he replied, "The Western Hotel is the best between Wheeling and Parkersburg." And we say that he knew what he was talking about. The Misses Schaal are just overrun with applications for board from Wheeling people, for the reason that every drummer goes home sounding their praise and that of their house. They can not accommodate one of those who wish to spend a month or so, but they soon intend to build, to be able to accommodate more. If they do this it will be a great place of resort for Wheeling's tired and overworked people during the warm weather.

Spending Thursday night here, we took an early start Friday morning for Middlebourne, where we arrived shortly after eight o'clock. We went out on horseback, having secured a good saddle horse from Mr. Woods, who keeps a livery stable in connection with the Western Hotel. He is always ready to furnish conveyances to any part of the county, and never overcharges. Our ride to and from Middlebourne was not an unpleasant one, for we are now some on a horseback ride. We were to open a school and give instructions in riding soon. We saton every one who sees us mounted, and the children always turn out and hurrah us past their dwellings, using such encouraging remarks as "Hold him level," "Don't break his back," &c., all of which shows that the people down here appreciate

A FINE, GRACEFUL RIDER.

Last night we were visited with a very heavy storm of wind and rain, which did considerable damage to the crops. The wind was from the west, and it was just at the present the rain is falling heavily. At this all will rejoice, for it was needed badly. On our way across the country we found it very dry and dusty, even small streams and runs being dry, and many of the crops much in need of a good soaking rain.

SISTERSVILLE is a town of about 5 or 600 inhabitants, being the principal town of Tyler county. They seem to think they should have the county seat here, because it is the river town, while in Wetzel, they think the county seat should go back in the county to some other point than the river town. In this contest we have no choice to express. We have no vote in Tyler, and are therefore not interested enough to study the matter up to that degree of understanding necessary before expressing an opinion.

Sistersville is a business town in every sense of the word, and why not! It is backed up by a good county, one of the best along the river. Its merchants are all full of enterprise. We will venture the assertion that we have here the best stocked county store in the state. We refer to that of Messrs. A. S. Thistle and the stores of Messrs. A. Dore & Son, and Messrs. McCoy, are not far behind. All of these establishments are run by No. 1 business men, and are an honor to the county and state. Here also is a large woolen mill, saw mill, tobacco box mill, large cooper shops, &c. &c. But of the business more anon. We merely mention it incidentally now.

We find they are here building what they have so long needed, a good substantial wharf. It will be nicely paved and of easy grade to the front street.

According to tradition, Mr. J. S. Woods. It is situated just on the side of the hill east of the town and is one of the finest peach orchards in this section. The peaches grown are more like the Delaware peach than any we ever saw outside of that State. Mr. Woods orchard is run by him more as an amusement than for profit, but he treats all of his friends literally he has enough left to sell and leave him a handsome profit.

HOW W. L. FOREMAN.

In talking around with men of all shades of political complexion, from the Bourgeois to the Radical, we find in this county a strong desire to have Hon. W. L. Foreman nominated for Congress. He would go out of this county with at least 1,000 majority, or 500 more than the usual republican majority. He certainly possesses confidence of the people of his native county to a wonderful extent to be so universally well spoken of.

About other matters we will write again when we are better posted about them.

NOBISDA.

The Chances in this Congressional District.
(From the Wellburg Herald.)

On a close vote the Democratic majority in the district is only a few hundred, and as matters now stand, it is believed that it can be overcome by a proper man. We mean one who is competent and proper to represent the intelligence, honesty and advanced sentiment of the district, and whose hands are not encumbered in any degree by back pay or Credit Mobilierism. Such a one we are inclined to think can be readily had.

Upon the subject matter of the above paragraph, the Fairmont West Virginian remarks as follows:

"It was greatly feared by the opposition party that the Convention would not be sufficiently packed to give him (Col. Wilson) the nomination, as he was regarded by far the weakest man that could have been chosen. There were three other aspirants before the Convention—Col. Campbell of Brooke, Mr. J. H. Good, of Ohio, and Col. Johnson, of Ohio, one of whom would have made a much harder fight than Col. Wilson."

CAMP MEETING.

Some of the Temporalities Connected With the Meeting.
MOUNDSVILLE, AUGUST 24, 1874.
Editors of the Intelligencer:

While you are receiving a full report of the proceedings of the Camp Meeting, or the inner workings, I will try to give you some idea of what is doing on the outside or in other words, in town and around camp.

In the first place, we have had from the beginning the general good order that is observed. This is no doubt in a great degree owing to the excellent police regulations under the supervision of that prince of good fellows,

MAJOR J. H. SNOWWATER.

The Major looks rather war-like, as with mace in hand, he quietly perambulates the encampment, and we suppose that it is this very appearance that causes the good order to prevail. His being also an officer of the law no doubt has something to do with it.

First, on entering the camp, we notice the fine grocery establishment of Edwards & Roberts, who are in the old stand of last year. They keep everything in their line, and sell at so reasonable a price that all may buy. Then, as clerk, he has secured a good saddle horse from Mr. Woods, who keeps a livery stable in connection with the Western Hotel. He is always ready to furnish conveyances to any part of the county, and never overcharges. Our ride to and from Middlebourne was not an unpleasant one, for we are now some on a horseback ride. WASHINGTON.

AGAIN THE FISH POLO PROTOCOL.
WASHINGTON, August 24.—It has been ascertained from a reliable source that Spain, instead of carrying into effect the protocol of the Fish-Polo, namely, to investigate the conduct of those of its authorities who have infringed on Spanish laws or treaty obligations, and to punish those who may have offended, has made a demand of an indemnity in the affair of the Virginians and for other alleged wrongs suffered by Spain owing to filibustering expeditions fitted out in this country, and landing, or attempting to land, arms and munitions of war on the Spanish American coast. To this demand our Government has replied in firm but courteous terms, asserting the untenability of the position of the Spanish Government, and reminding it of its remissness or inexcusable delay in making reparation for wrongs suffered by our citizens, and in person and property. The latest information from Minister Cushing is, that he is still pressing our demands on Spain. It seems certain that the clause in the protocol providing that reciprocal reclamations shall be the subject of consideration between the two governments will not end satisfactorily. For some time it will become a subject of arbitration as per agreement, providing the constitutional action of the Senate of the United States shall be given to it.

A $300,000 Fire at South Bend, Ind.
SOUTH BEND, August 24.—At 4 o'clock this morning a fire was discovered in the paint rooms of the mammoth wagon manufactory of the Studebaker Bros., resulting in a loss of $300,000. These works were erected immediately after the burning of their smaller shops on June 17, '72, when they lost about $75,000. The flames spread rapidly, and owing to the great size of the buildings the fire department was unable to get the fire under immediate control, but finally turned their attention to where the building connected with one erected four years ago, and there stopped it. In this latter building was a part of the machinery, which was all saved, but the rest was consumed by water. Even the heat was so intense that the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern freight and passenger depots were in danger. Trains were delayed in passing for some four hours. There was no stirring and the flames shot up straight in the air, so that many buildings in the immediate vicinity were saved. Floating cinders fell over a mile out of the works contained upwards of 3,000 finished wagons and vast quantities of stock in progress of manufacture, ready for shipping, and cars from the C., B. & Q., the L. & N., P. & W. & C., the C. & R. & C., and the I. & P. C. railroads were standing at the shipping doors in process of loading, but were not out of the way just in time to save them from burning.

The loss in detail, as near as can be approximately estimated, is buildings $100,000; stock in process of manufacture $100,000; finished wagons $100,000; machinery $15,000; furniture and fixtures $15,000; total $300,000. This is thought to be rather a conservative estimate.

The following insurance companies have policies: Illinois companies—Traders, Chicago, $2,000; Globe, Chicago, $3,000; Atlantic and Pacific, Chicago, $2,500; Mercantile, Chicago, $2,500; Missouri companies—St. Louis, St. Louis, $2,500; Franklin, St. Louis, $2,500; Commercial, St. Louis, $2,500; Citizens, St. Louis, $2,500; American Central, St. Louis, $2,500; St. Joseph, St. Joseph, $2,500; Pennsylvania companies—National, Philadelphia, $2,500; Farmers' Mutual, York, $2,500; Alliance, Pittsburgh, $2,500; Ben Franklin, Allegheny, $1,500; Peoples', Philadelphia, $2,500; Bostonian, Philadelphia, $2,500; Philadelphia, $2,500; Columbia, Philadelphia, $2,500; German, Erie, $2,500; Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, $2,500; Lancaster, Lancaster, $2,500; Sunbury, Sunbury, $2,500; Safeburg, Philadelphia, $2,500; West Virginia companies—Franklin, Wheeling, $2,500; Peabody, Wheeling, $2,500; Standard Marine, Wheeling, $2,500; German, Wheeling, $2,500; Commercial, Charleston, $2,500; New Jersey companies—Union, Jersey City, $2,500; Citizens of Newark, $2,500; Franklin, Jersey City, $2,500; Millville, of Millville, $2,000; Germania, Newark, $2,000; Ohio Companies—Firemen's of Dayton, $2,000; Firemen's of Cincinnati, $2,000; Amazon, of Cincinnati, $2,000; Libertia, of Cleveland, $2,000; Miscellaneous Companies—Michigan State, Adrian, Mich., $2,500; West Chester, New Rochelle, N. A call is being circulated calling a meeting of the city of New York to be held this evening to show the sympathy and feelings of the community at their loss.

The Kentucky War.
LOUISVILLE, August 24.—A special dispatch to the Courier-Journal from Owen, Owen county, to-day says the Sarsfield Riflemen have just arrived, leaving them a march of 12 miles to the scene of action. Sunday evening the Sheriff's posse of sixty men met Walter Russell's posse of sixty men near the town of Mazon, and made resulting in the wounding of John Smoot, Walter Russell and a man named Judd. They refused to surrender to the authorities under any circumstances.

SECOND DISPATCH.
The base of operations is changed from Monterey to Graiz Point, eight miles north of Monterey. The Sheriff's posse, Sheriff's posse and a large number of armed citizens have just started for that place. It is stated that there will be a thousand armed citizens in pursuit before tomorrow night. I have just learned of the killing of John C. Smoot, who was completely riddled with buckshot. The object will be now to surround and overpower the Russell party. The militia will reach Graiz about 6 o'clock to-night.

KONG KONG.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 24.—The Pacific Mail steamer Japan arrived this afternoon with dates from Hong Kong to July 23d, and from Yokohama to August 3d.

An inquiry has taken place at Shanghai into the conduct of the captain of the British steamer Aratou, which appears to be such as to render it necessary for the officers of the vessel to take it out of his hands while on the voyage from Hong Kong to Shanghai. It has resulted in the suspension of Capt. Montgomery's certificate for six months.

The Chinese government has issued orders that all dispatches to the mission to Peking shall be trusted to the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company at various parts of California. A special department is to be organized by the company for this purpose.

The telegraph line between Foo Chow and the Pagoda anchorage is opened and is now in full working order. The line is about eight miles in length and runs for more than two miles on the right bank of the river. The entire line was constructed in twelve days at an expense of about $4,000. It is worked on the Morse plan and is capable of transmitting fifteen words per minute with an experienced operator. ## ST. PAUL, MINN.

SUDDEN RISE IN THE MISSISSIPPI.
ST. PAUL, August 24.—In consequence of the rise in the Mississippi river caused by recent heavy rains the log boom of the St. Anthony Boom Co. above St. Anthony Falls broke last night, and one million and a quarter feet of logs went over the falls. Loss about $12,000.

P. S.—The river at this point is now full of logs and it is inferred that another break has occurred. Considerable damage to the dam at the falls have been done by escaped logs.

THE STATE TURNOUT.
which began on Friday closed to day. A considerable number of turners from all parts of the State were present and the meeting very successful.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.
Alex Sanders was killed by lightning last evening at Marshall, Minn., while on top of a wheat stack.

Beecher Denies on his Oath.
CONCORD, N. H., August 24.—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, after the Twin Mountain House to-day, arriving at 12 o'clock at ten o'clock. He proceeded directly to the law office of Harry Bingham, where he signed and swore to a paper which had been drawn up by his counsel, Thomas G. Shearman, of New York. This was an explicit denial of all charges against him in the allegation of complaint brought against him by Mr. Tilton, except the specification that he had been to Elizabeth R. Richards, now Elizabeth R. Tilton. The paper was very brief, making not more than ten lines of manuscript. The paper passed through the hands of the Secretary of State's office and he made the necessary certificate upon it after which it was sent by mail to Mr. Shearman, at New York. Mr. Beecher returned to the Twin Mountain House after concluding his business.

Interview with Miss Anthony.
ROCHESTER, August 24.—The Union publishes this afternoon the result of an interview between one of its reporters and Miss Susan B. Anthony relative to the statement of Mrs. Tilton's servant, Bessie, implicating Mrs. Anthony in an improper tete-a-tete with Theodore Tilton. Miss Anthony denies the whole story, but regards it as too absurd to be worthy of notice. She says she never heard that the girl Bessie was anything more than a servant in Tilton's family; that she was half idiot, and that Mrs. Tilton had repeatedly told her not to instill into the girl the elements of truth.

Charged with Using False Certificate.
VICKSBURG, August 24.—T. W. Cardozo, colored, state Superintendent of Education, was arrested in Jackson, yesterday, on an affidavit made by S. C. Carter, charging Cardozo with fraudulently issuing jury and witness certificates while circuit clerk of Warren county. He was brought before Judge A. M., and appeared before a justice of the peace, waived an examination and failing to pay the required bond of $500, was sent to jail.
